Great Family Entertainment at Affordable Family Prices

Aga-Boom

Saturday, September 29 at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

These three veterans of Cirque du Soleil delight audiences with their unique style of physical comedy, blending silly slapstick with European theatrical whimsy. The laughter never ends as they create madcap mayhem in a blast of buffoonery with juggling, stilt-walking, and clowning around. Aga-Boom's signature finale is sheer pandemonium, as toilet-paper streamers, confetti, bouncing balls, lights, alarms, and balloons overtake the theater! Exhilarating fun for the whole family. "A hugely entertaining experience...a frenzy of scenes that build toward an unforgettable chaotic finale, the show culminates in sheer glee..." (Backstage West "Critics Choice") Fun for all ages

Mutts Gone Nuts

Sunday, November 11 at 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Prepare to be bow-wowed! Husband and wife duo Scott and Joan Houghton bring a comedy dog-thrill show like none other. From frisbee and barrel tricks to dance and jump rope routines, these canines rescued from shelters will win you over. These talented canines even include two world record holders. Feather, a greyhound, set the standard for highest canine jump and cattle dog mix Geronimo holds two world records in double-dutch jump rope. Experience in person the incredible talents of these furry friends you may have seen on television's The View, Ellen, or The Late Show with David Letterman. Fun for all ages

ENCHANTMENT THEATRE COMPANY

The Phantom Tollbooth

Saturday, January 26 at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

This beloved childhood classic book is brought to life in an original stage adaptation. Norton Juster's story begins with Milo, who is very bored until a tollbooth mysteriously appears. He drives his toy car through it, and everything changes! On the other side, Milo finds a fantastical world where he is welcomed, and his help is desperately needed. Using puppets, masks, magic, inventive scenic effects, and original music, Enchantment Theatre Company recreates Milo's adventures as he travels the Lands Beyond in his exciting quest to rescue Princesses Rhyme and Reason. "A masterful fusion of engaging storytelling with the performing and visual arts." (DC Metro Theater Arts) Recommended for ages 6-11; Grades 1-6

PERFORMANCE SPONSOR

The Very Hungry Caterpillar Show

Saturday, March 30 at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

A beloved classic makes its way off the page and onto the stage. The Very Hungry Caterpillar Show features a menagerie of 75 lovable puppets, faithfully adapting four popular stories by children's author, Eric Carle: The Artist Who Painted a Blue Horse, Mister Seahorse, The Very Lonely Firefly and of course, the star of the show—The Very Hungry Caterpillar. Bright in color and spirit, this adaptation captures all of the charm in Carle's original tales and illustrations while conveying simple messages about the value of creativity, belonging, and growth. Recommended for ages 3-7
